SCS FAMILY MEDICINE COLPOSCOPY COURSE
Course Chair: Carolyn Nelson, DO

Presenters: Barbara Apgar, MD, Greg Brotzman, MD, Carolyn Nelson, DO, Greg Absten
November 6, 2019

GOALS:
1. To become knowledgeable and develop or improve skills in:
   a. The normal/abnormal Transformation Zone
   b. Current Pap smear guidelines and screening
   c. ASCCP current guidelines for cytology and histology
   d. Colposcopy skills for cervical, vaginal and vulvar lesions.
2. To practice skills in colposcopic workshop

OBJECTIVES:
1. Participants will be able to apply the current guidelines for screening for cervical cancer
2. Participants will be able to apply current ASCCP guidelines to cytologic and histologic findings.
3. Participants will be able to discuss the effects and implications of HPV and common serotypes.
4. Participants will recognize normal v abnormal colposcopic findings
5. Participants will demonstrate basic colposcopic techniques including utilizing the colposcope, biopsies and ECC on models.
6. Participants will be able to accurately evaluate endocervical glandular lesions.
7. Participants will recognize and be able to diagnose and treat vulvar lesions.
8. Participants will determine treatment and follow up on colposcopy and histologic findings.

ACGME COMPETENCIES ADDRESSED:
PC, MK, PBLI, PROF, C

ASSIGNED-PRE READINGS:
Specific readings and on line testing must be completed prior to attending the conference and are posted to the SCS website. Failure to complete and pass the testing will exclude you from attendance.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: (8:00AM-4:30PM)
8:00- 12:15: Lecture Presentations
1:00-4:30: Workshops and Skills Checkoff

EVALUATION:
Multiple Choice Question Post-test