Speaker Bio:

Charles T. Mehlman, D.O., MPH
Professor of Pediatric Orthopaedic Surgery
Director of Musculoskeletal Outcomes Research
Director of Pediatric Orthopaedic Resident Education
Co-Director of Cincinnati Children’s Brachial Plexus Center
Co-Director of Limb Reconstruction Center, Division of Orthopaedic Surgery

Dr. Mehlman completed his Orthopaedic Residency at Ohio University and his Pediatric Orthopaedic Fellowship at Cincinnati Children’s Hospital Medical Center under the direction of Alvin Crawford. Dr. Mehlman completed outcomes research and clinical epidemiology training at the Harvard School of Public Health and at McMaster University. He has worked for the last 17 years at Cincinnati Children’s Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio. Dr. Mehlman’s clinical interests include Evidence-Based Orthopaedic Surgery, Legg-Calve-Perthes Disease, Brachial Plexus Palsy/Erb’s Palsy, Scoliosis and related disorders, Fractures and Sports Trauma, and Limb Reconstruction.

Dr. Mehlman is an active member of the editorial boards of the Journal of Children’s Orthopaedics, the Journal of Orthopaedic Trauma, and the Spine Journal. He is also a regular manuscript reviewer for three other orthopaedic journals. He has been a regular contributor to multiple orthopaedic textbooks including the Orthopaedic Knowledge Update Series.

Dr. Mehlman’s rural farming roots are reflected in his love for country music. He is also an avid sports fan and youth football coach. He and his lovely and talented wife Elsira M. Pina, D.O., are dedicated parents of their 12-year-old twins.
