Pediatric Educational Conference
“Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine for the Pediatric Patient”
Friday, February 15, 2013
OMM Lab – E106 Fee Hall - Michigan State University and
UC4-210 at MSUCOM Macomb

12:30 – 1:00 Lunch
1:00 – 4:00 Learning Objectives:
1. Diagnose and treat problems relating to the birthing process
2. Treat common problems in infancy like torticollis, plagiocephaly, feeding difficulties and reflux
3. Know how to osteopathically address common illnesses in children: otitis media, pharyngitis, asthma and constipation.

Led by: Dr. Lisa DeStefano and Dr. Laura Tinning (in East Lansing) and Dr. Lori Dillard (at MSUCOM Macomb)

DIRECTIONS TO FEE HALL
<< Please park in Lot 100 on Service Road >>
From South Hagadorn: Go past Service Road and make a Michigan-left. Turn right onto Service Road. Lot 100 will be on your left.
From North Hagadorn: turn right onto Service Road after the railroad tracks. Turn right into Lot 100.